EDITORIAL.

Hurrah! the Smart Set is coming to the Grand tomorrow. Everybody's going.

An advertisement announces "The Wolf" at the Garden. If this brand of weather keeps up the Wolf will soon be at the Door.

The Safety First plan for all Negro professional men is to stay out of cheap politics, stay off the street corners and stay in their offices sometimes.

The efforts of Principal Lee toward improving the working value of the Lincoln High will have the unreserved support of the school patrons, all of whom agree that there is a great field for operation.

It's the duty of the Republican party and its managers to put up a high class, clean cut representative ticket in this municipal campaign. If they do so they can win with ease. And other kind of ticket will lose worlds without end. Let's be wise.

Every race loving woman and every progressive man of the race in this city should be in hearty sympathy with the movement inaugurated by the Woman's League to establish a Y. W. C. A. in this city. This will in no way detract from the work being done by the branch in Kansas City, Kan., but the splendid work being done by the Y. M. C. A. for men furnishes ample reason for a like institution for women in this city. Let's one and all rally to their support.

It has come to Missouri. The Maryland residence segregation idea is to be voted upon in the city of St. Louis next month and a heated campaign is being waged over the subject. Naturally the Negroes regard the movement as a mere effort to legalize race hatred and race degradation. For it is nothing less than degradation to compel a man to live in an undesirable section of a city simply because his skin is black and when he is well able to live a desirable locality. The predilection of white people to stand together when a secret ballot is taken upon any issue effecting the rights of black men renders the outcome of the contest very uncertain. Yet the St. Louis Negro citizens are waging an organized, determined fight for their rights and have the open support of many prominent white men. The city is nominally Republican, and in this fact much hope is centered. However, it would not be surprising to see the proposition carry and the colored citizens driven to the necessity of carrying their rights into the courts for protection. Kansas City Negroes will be ready to lend all possible aid when the call for assistance is rendered necessary.

THEY SAY

—That "Might makes right" among Kansas City politicians. But does it?

—That "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned" or a man dead broke.

—That the Negro Handy Store on Vine street is making good. Hurrah!

—That a certain Negro in business has spent enough for policy tickets to buy a home. Too bad.

—That it looks like R-O-O-S-E-V-E-L-T for the next president. Well, he suits Betty and Sam.

—That there are some people fools because they can't help it, and others because they enjoy it.

—That those Negroes wishing for "one of dem ole time wintahs" have surely got their hide full.

—That if you miss this special rate for the Sun this month you will have no one to blame but yourself.

—That you can never tell whether a woman is sorry or glad when she cries. Better find out before you "butt" in.

—That a whole lot of people have been using their bath tubs for coal bins this winter. Well, keep them away from the fire, please.

—That a woman bootlegger recently arrested in Kansas City, Kas., had twelve pints of whiskey suspended by cords from around her waist under her clothing. That's going some, ain't it?

Editor the Sun: The Kansas City Sun came to hand on time as newsy and bright as a gold dollar. Hope that the splendid speech of Prof. Marquess and Dr. Thomas will be in the next issue. Such a splendid champion of Negro rights and manhood ought to be in the homes of every family in Kansas City, Mo., and that subscribers should be so proud of it that they should not be reminded that the collector will be around for what is so meritoriously deserved. Altho my subscription has not expired I grasp the opportunity to renew at your special rate. Enclosed is money order for $1 for renewal. Yours for success, GEO. W. PRIOLEAU, Chaplain Tenth Cavalry.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The treat of the year, Coleridge Taylor's "A Tale of Old Japan," rendered by 60 trained voices at the Y. M. C. A. Friday, January 28, 8:15 p. m.

Handball, the business man's game, par excellence, is being started among the men. All fellows interested in this sport call Dr. T. C. Chapman.

The enthusiasm for class work is running at a very high pitch and the enrollment in all men's gym classes is increasing at each meeting.

Mr. Chas. D. Frazier, now located in Grand Canyon, Ariz., who recently renewed his membership, is due to visit Kansas City in the near future.

The grade school boys are now taking advantage of all privileges. The boys' department will be open for reading and discussion Sunday afternoons from 2:30 to 5. We hope soon to have a meeting for boys on Sunday similar to that of the men.

of all present....One of the season's most elaborate affairs was the public reception given by Good Hope Lodge 152, A. F. & A. M., at their hall last Thursday evening. A rather interesting program was rendered. Three numbers worthy of special mention were the addresses of Mrs. C. B. Lawson, R. M., of the Eastern Star Chapter, and Mr. U. S. Kay, P. S., of Sunset Lodge, G. U. O. F. Mrs. Lawson's subject was "Masonry and its relation to the Church." Mr. Kay's subject was "Fraternalism and its Purpose." Both of these subjects were handled very creditably and left a lasting impression upon their hearers....Mrs. Maud McKinney was hostess at a dainty five-course dinner Sunday evening. Her guests were Mrs. W. C. Hendry, Mr. Gus McNeal, and Mr. U. M. Carter....The local Odd Fellows Lodge gave an enjoyable entertainment at their hall during the past week, the same being in commemoration of their annual feast....Mr. U. S. Kay is building another cottage in the northwest part of town. Keep it up brother....Mr. P.

lar to that of the men's meeting.

Through the cold and the blizzard the men came in such large numbers last Sunday to hear Evangelist S. L. Howard that the lobby was practically filled. Through the kindness of Dr. Ransom of the Methodist church of Kansas City, Kas., for whom Dr. Howard will conduct a revival for the next few weeks, the men are to have one more opportunity to hear the evangelist in a Sunday afternoon meeting. If the crowd increases in proportion next Sunday as did last Sunday's, the meeting will be forced to the gymnasium.

Mr. A. Frank Neale, a head waiter of the Hotel Utah, Salt Lake City, is taking his vacation here in Kansas City, his home town. Although he has been out of the city for over five years, his allegiance to the Y. M. C. A. of which he was a manager before leaving the city, is as strong as ever. To gether with his men, he subscribed more than $300 to erect the present building. Always in the van of progress, he has enrolled in the business men's noon day gymnasium class during his stay in the city. He will meet his many association friends Sunday at the men's meeting.

TUSCON, ARIZONA

"Tuscon", the biggest little city in Arizona, the possessor of the world's greatest climate, is at the present time the wettest place in the dry state of Arizona, by reason of the fact that while the eastern states are shivering with the thermometer down to zero and below, we of the so-called desert are enjoying the most delightful showers that would do justice to the most delightful spring weather. The graceful pepper trees cast their shadows, the ivy full of life, and the "Green grass grew all around", has served to make the numerous social affairs during the past two weeks all the more enjoyable....One of the most delightful after holiday events was the elaborate dinner party given by Mrs. W. C. Hendry of East Fifth Street last Friday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Maud McKinney. The pleasant home was very tastefully decorated with poinsettias and American Beauty roses. After dinner the guests were entertained at bridge. Mrs. McKinney was the winner of the first prize, which was a magnificent silver loving cup and the second prize went to Mrs. Thompson, a very beautiful candelabra. Music was furnished throughout the evening and a delightful time was the decision
